CORAM : R.M.S.KHANDEPARKAR, J

DATED : 1st December, 2004.

P.C.

1. Taken up on board for hearing on request.

2. Heard the learned advocate for the petitioners. In view of the fact that the decree is dated 28th September, 1999 and the matter has been concluded by the order of the Apex Court which was passed in January, 2003, in fact, there is absolutely no case for grant of further time to the petitioners to vacate the premises and to comply with the decree. However, purely on humanitarian ground, at the request of the learned advocate for the petitioners, one week's time is granted to enable the petitioners to comply with the decree in question. In case the petitioners fail to comply with the decree within one week from today, the respondents/decreed holders shall be at liberty to get the decree executed in paccordacne with the provisions of law.

3. The learned advocate for the petitioners states that the petitioner No.1 who is present in the Court undertakes to comply with the decree within seven days from today.

4. With these observations, the present civil application is disposed of.

5. Parties to act on the ordinary copy of this order duly authenticated by the Personal Secretary of this Court.
